

British Literary Manuscripts Online c. 1660-1900

INTIMATE GLIMPSES INTO THE LIVES AND WORKS OF MAJOR LITERARY FIGURES

Representing the largest digitization project of its kind, British Literary Manuscripts Online provides an intimate look into the lives and works of Britain's major writers across two hundred years. From the rise of Charles II to the death of Queen Victoria, British Literary Manuscripts Online contains complete facsimile copies of author manuscripts including poems, plays, and novels; private correspondence, diaries and journals; as well as drawings and handwritten notes. This groundbreaking resource:

- Brings together priceless manuscript documents — once scattered throughout the world and available only to specialized literary scholars — and makes them accessible to students, instructors and general readers alike
- Allows for the study of manuscripts to be integrated into literature, humanities and social and cultural history curriculum
- Opens up endless possibilities for users studying authors' social networks, their personal beliefs and attitudes, their education and the development of their writings

SOURCED FROM MAJOR LIBRARIES

The manuscripts in British Literary Manuscripts Online come from all over the world, including:

- The British Library
- The Brontë Parsonage Museum
- The Folger Shakespeare Library
- Huntington Library
- The National Art Library at the Victoria and Albert Museum
- The National Library of Scotland
- Princeton University Library
- The William Clark Memorial Library, University of California—Los Angeles

ADVISORY BOARD OF SCHOLARS

A board of scholars contributed their significant expertise to British Literary Manuscripts Online:

- Charlotte Cabbage, Humanities Coordinator and Subject Specialist for English, Comparative Literatures, and the Performing Arts, Northwestern University Library, Evanston, Illinois
- James L. Harner, Samuel Rhea Gammon Professor of Liberal Arts at Texas A & M University; Editor, World Shakespeare Bibliography
- Susan Schreibman, Director of the Digital Humanities Observatory, Dublin, Ireland
- Ray Siemens, Canada Research Chair in Humanities Computing and Professor of English at the University of Victoria, British Columbia
- Henry Woudhuysen, Dean, Faculty of Arts and Humanities, University College London, England; general overseer of Catalogue of English Literary Manuscripts 1450-1700

▲ Jane Eyre. Sourced from the British Library

British Literary Manuscripts Online c. 1660-1900

INTIMATE GLIMPSES INTO THE LIVES AND WORKS OF MAJOR LITERARY FIGURES

COVERS MORE THAN 200 YEARS

Discover the manuscripts of British authors from 1660-1900 including:

- Aphra Behn
- Charlotte Brontë
- Robert Burns
- Thomas Carlyle
- Charles Dickens
- Samuel Johnson
- Sir Walter Scott
- Laurence Sterne
- Alfred Lord Tennyson
- Catharine Trotter
- And many more

ACCESS ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPTS LIKE THESE CLASSIC WORKS:

- Autograph manuscripts of Alexander Pope including his translation of Homer's Iliad
- William Blake's Songs of Experience
- 156 poems of Robert Burns, including the autograph draft of his last major narrative poem Tam O'Shanter
- Thomas Carlyle's letters expressing his sympathy for the urban poor
- Manuscript drafts Sir Walter Scott's novels Ivanhoe and Castle Dangerous
- Original typescripts of Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray
- And many more

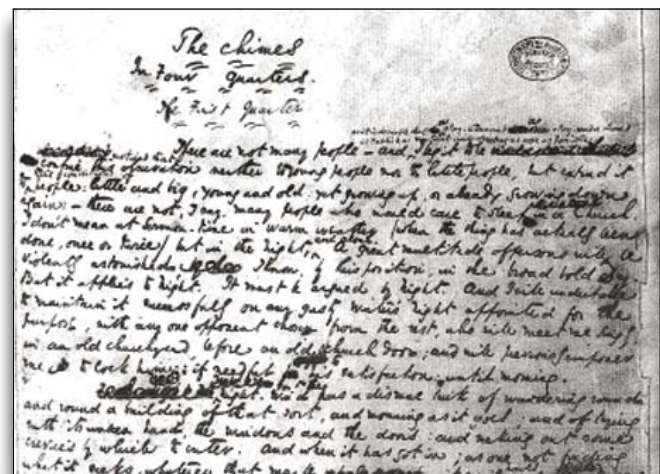

INTUITIVE ONLINE SEARCHING

Follow a writer's journey and discover his or her creative process in an intuitive and dynamic online search environment:

- Search by full citation, author, titles of major works, document type, year, century, source library, source microfilm collection
- Link to related resources
- Search or browse manuscript catalogs
- Create permanent links to materials of interest
- Print, email or download facsimiles
- Fuzzy search
- Browse authors, library collections and more
- View manuscript page-by-page or as thumbnails
- Resize, rotate, fit to height or width, full-screen view
- MARC Records available

FREE TRIAL

For more information or to request a free trial, please contact your Gale Representative or visit www.gale.com/GDCTrial.

▲ "The Chimes" by Charles Dickens, c. 1845. Sourced from the Victoria and Albert Museum